
REMUNERATION & NOMINATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

Remuneration & Nomination Committee Charter

1. Membership

- 1.1 The remuneration & nomination committee is a committee of the board established by the board in accordance with rule 8.16 of the company's constitution.
- 1.2 Members of the committee shall comprise at least three non-executive directors of the company.
- 1.3 The chairman and members of the committee are appointed by the board and may be appointed for specific terms.
- 1.4 The chairman of the board may be the chairman of the committee.
- 1.5 The secretary of the committee will be appointed by the members of the committee.

2. Objective

The objective of the committee is to support and advise the board in fulfilling its responsibility to shareholders to ensure that :

- the board comprises individuals best able to discharge the responsibilities of directors having regard to the law and the highest standards of governance.
- the company has remuneration policies and practices which enable it to attract and retain directors and senior executives who will best contribute towards achieving positive outcomes for shareholders.

3. Responsibilities

- 3.1 The committee assesses the skills required to discharge competently the board's duties having regard to the company's performance, financial position and strategic direction.
- 3.2 As and when it considers it appropriate, and when a non-executive director retires, the committee assesses the skills represented on the board by the non-executive directors and determines whether those skills meet the skills identified as required.
- 3.3 Having regard to the skills required and the skills already represented on the board, the committee will at opportunity implement a process to identify suitable candidates for appointment as a non-executive director.
- 3.4 The process for identifying suitable candidates may include a search undertaken by an appropriately qualified independent third party acting on a brief prepared by the committee which identifies the skills sought.

Remuneration & Nomination Committee Charter

- 3.5 The committee makes recommendations to the board on candidates it considers appropriate for appointment as non-executive directors.
- 3.6 The committee makes recommendations to the board on appropriate methods of undertaking an annual performance evaluation of the board.
- 3.7 The committee assesses the skills, experience, qualifications and other attributed required of the chief executive officer, undertakes a search for a replacement chief executive officer when needed and, with the help of independent consultants if required, makes a recommendation to the board for the appointment of a chief executive officer.
- 3.8 The committee recommends to the board the remuneration and other conditions of service of the chief executive officer and executive directors, if any.
- 3.9 The committee sets the remuneration and conditions of service, including financial incentives, for the chief financial officer, company secretary, and other senior executives reporting to the chief executive officer.
- 3.10 The committee establishes the design of executive incentive plans (including equity based plans) and approves payments or awards under such plans
- 3.11 The committee keeps under review the performance hurdles associated with the incentive plans.
- 3.12 The committee makes recommendations to the board on the remuneration of non-executive directors within the aggregate approved by shareholders in general meeting from time to time.
- 3.13 At its discretion, the committee consults appropriately qualified consultants for advice on remuneration and other conditions of service.

4. Access

- 4.1 The committee may invite any executive director, executive, other staff member or independent third party to attend all or part of a meeting of the committee.

5. Meetings

- 5.1 The committee meets as often as required but at least once a year.
- 5.2 Any committee member may call a meeting of the committee.
- 5.3 A quorum is three members.