

Carols is comin' to town

Sunrise stars return to the stage to host the 2016 Woolworths Carols in the Domain.

(21 November 2016) They're back! Seven's David Koch, Samantha Armytage, Natalie Barr and Mark Beretta will return to host the 2016 Woolworths Carols in the Domain which for the first time will be on Sunday 18 December.

The Sunrise stars will be joined by Carols' best ever line-up of entertainers to share some Christmas cheer with Australian audiences.

We can announce the much-loved Christmas event will star Ky Baldwin, the 15-year-old who wowed audiences as the young Peter Allen in Seven's hit 2015 miniseries Peter Allen 'Not the Boy Next Door'.

Also, returning to the stage will be Mark Vincent, the only classical trained artist in Australian history to have released seven albums by the time he was 21 and Australian television, film and family favourite, Jay Laga'aia.

In addition, these stars are confirmed to appear on the 2016 Carols stage:

DAMI IM
DOUG PARKINSON
GEORGIE PARKER
JOHN PAUL YOUNG
LEO SAYER
MICKY AND MINNIE MOUSE
SHANNON NOLL
THE MCCLYMONTS
and TODD MCKENNEY

The Salvation Army is once again the Woolworths Carols in the Domain official charity.

Woolworths Carols in the Domain is in its 34th year and will be staged on Sunday 18 December at The Domain, Royal Botanic Gardens Sydney. Celebrate Christmas traditions live from 8.30pm on Seven.

#ChristmasTraditions

- END

For further information, please contact:

Vanessa Till
Sunrise Publicity
P: 02 8777 7881
E: vtill@seven.com.au