New faces join Johanna Griggs on House Rules

The show's judges, resident designer and build supervisor revealed.

Joining host Johanna Griggs on Seven's new reality series HOUSE RULES will be two expert judges – renowned architect Joe Snell and Home Beautiful editor Wendy Moore – who will score all the room renovations. Acclaimed designer Carolyn Burns-McCrave and carpenter Chester Drife will be overseeing the six teams, who have only one week to transform each home.

The four of them are leaders in their field:

JOE SNELL (Judge): A registered architect educated at the University of Sydney and the Royal Academy of Fine Arts, Copenhagen, who has received national design awards in retail, commercial, event and retail projects.

WENDY MOORE (Judge): Wendy has worked in magazines for more than 20 years and is one of the foremost experts on style and design as the editor of Home Beautiful.

CAROLYN BURNS-McCRAVE (Designer): Carolyn has spent the last 15 years working as an interior designer and runs her own successful interior design business.

CHESTER DRIFE (Build Supervisor): Chester has been a carpenter for nearly two decades and runs his own carpentry and construction business.

HOUSE RULES will see six teams from every state in Australia put their homes on the line and their skills to the test in a fight for renovation supremacy and a life-changing prize. The teams will travel the country, hand over the keys to their homes and leave their competition rivals to transform every room in their house...any way they want!

It's the key to a whole new life. But will it open the door to their dreams or their worst nightmare?

HOUSE RULES – an in-house production from the makers of My Kitchen Rules – is coming soon to Channel Seven.
