

Monday 7 December, 2015

Seven News recognised with international award

Seven News US Bureau Chief Mike Amor and camera editor Arron Hage have been recognised with a prestigious international award for their coverage on the death of Robin Williams.

The pair received the American National Arts & Entertainment Journalism Award at a gala event on Sunday evening in Los Angeles presented by the LA Press Club.

Amor was also the recipient of the Edward R. Murrow Award in the Large Market Television Writing category in April this year, cementing his place as Australia's most experienced TV correspondent.

For further information:

Seven Publicity
(02) 8777 7250